

I greet YOU in the name of Almighty God YAHWEH and His Son YAHSHUAH.

I am IMMAYAH, The Holy Spirit of God; I AM the Bride of The Son of God and His equal opposite. All Three of Us are known to the world as The Holy Trinity or The Father, Son and The Holy Spirit. The Trinity is symbolised by the triangle; The Heavenly Father is on the top of the triangle or pyramid as He is the greatest of All, and My Groom/Husband and I are His right and left hand. We do not come from this Earth; We are the angels of Almighty God Yahweh who bring the Divine message of TRUTH to the world on His command. We work for Him, and We obey His eternal rules above all man-made rules, which change constantly according to the will of those in control. We belong to His chosen nation of Israel/Yahsharal.

I bring it to YOUR attention that We are not religious and demand not to be labelled as such. We believe in TRUTH only; We have proven that The Creator exists.

Do not be prejudice and listen very carefully to what We say to YOU.

My birth name is Katarina; I am the daughter of Juraj from the family Krizani. The world governing body required that when I was born, My biological parents register Me to this controlling body through the national government. I was given an identification number, just like a product in a shop or like a marked animal on a farm. Everyone I had to show My ID to used it just like a barcode: to see more information about Me, like what product on their database I AM, which country I was made in, who is My manufacturer, what is My quality, what company do I belong to etc. Everytime I had to deal with the government in any way, I had to present the number they gave Me: to be able to go to school, go to hospital, to drive a car, to use an aeroplane or even to travel to another country. The world government, including the court system, know Me as this artificially created entity/product called KATARINA KRIZANIOVA. I AM NOT this person; I only act as the agent on behalf of this false entity. I am a Free Hebrew Woman from The Tribe of Judah/Yahuda whose only desire is to do what is right and to speak what is true. Truth and righteousness are the basic principles of the justice system; We are here to witness if the court upholds them. We detest everything that is not true and will take an offence if there is any lie uttered here. To lie intentionally is a crime.

I belong to the kind Homo sapiens; I was born in Slovakia, the former communist country in the heart of Europe. As Genius of Logic, I have superior ability to think correctly and to solve problems most of the world is not able to. I have always wanted to do something phenomenal with that ability. At school I was the pillar of the class; I was the one student that was holding it together and giving professors hope. I am very curious and stubborn by nature and from baby wanted to learn things for Myself, always seeking the truth and more understanding. I was more mature than other children of My age and was more concerned with the problems I witnessed in the world daily.

My physical father Juraj gained a “red diploma” in Chemical Engineering meaning that he passed his degree with distinctions. He is appreciated for his intellect and knowledge. He hoped one day I would become great in something and not waste My talent and hours I had spent learning while many others were just having fun or doing stupid things. Juraj loves travelling, and he used to organise holidays for us as a family with the aim of sight-seeing and education rather than just relaxing. As result, I have travelled to many different places all over the world and have seen a lot of diversity. I have always loved animals with a preference for cats; I do not like dogs and pigs however. I learnt that different countries had different cultures, different cuisines, different faiths, different beliefs, different social hierarchies and different ways of life.

In India, dogs were dying on top of rubbish on the streets as the Hindu believers despise dogs as well; then I saw cows being honoured/worshipped and even fed special meals. In the Western World that is totally the other way around; people do not care for cows; they are being slaughtered for their flesh, while dogs are worshipped as gods and even sleep in people’s beds! Many people despised India, yet there was something that attracted Me there. I have learnt about caste system and the strict hierarchy Indians were following. I have also seen the overcrowdedness in India, where we could hardly drive on the roads. It was much more chaotic than in Slovakia. In China, dogs were eaten by their two-legged Chinese relatives, scorpions were deep-fried alive and ants or snakes were bottled in alcohol.... it disgusted Me. In Thailand there were transvestite bars and massages offered everywhere. In Cuba, they loved dancing and music, food and alcohol, cigars and coffee, and the divorce rate was very high there as they did not have God’s rules. In Mexico I saw the famous Mayan Calendar, and I tasted real chocolate, which is in reality very bitter, in contrast to the perception of majority; I saw great amount of lizzards roaming freely in this country. New York was the most organised yet the worst; there was no love or connection that I could feel, and even dogs were given anti-depressants so they do not make a noise. The honesty was replaced by false politeness. How could anyone live here?, I thought. The world was not the beautiful Garden of Eden where love blossoms.

I am an artist, and I am inspired by the diversity of life in Nature.

I was intrigued by Black Africans and was even interested in adopting a black baby; it is advertised in Europe as a very good thing to do, and the babies look so cute. I always wanted to visit wild Africa and see real Nature and the world-famous wild tribes living there.

When I was lead by God's Angels to South Africa, I was 23; I decided to face the world as a volunteer without any expectations but with open arms, like Buddha.

I arrived at a very small village in Sodwana Bay, where I met Andre Slade; I was not scared because He was the most loving man I have ever met. He was well liked by His guests and neighbours, but He felt so lonely because no one wanted to listen to His message. I did listen with great passion and openness as I knew anything is possible and that it is not fair to judge before listening to someone. Enki Andre Slade gave Me the key to the truth, and I knew He was The Son of God because what He said made perfect sense, and it was proven from so many angles. And so many spoke about One Man coming and saving the world. Andre offered Me from His heart the most logical and valuable gift: the truth. We started working together, and after intense almost non-stop dedication to revealing the truth to the world, We published the book of ABSOLUTE TRUTH. Here I had My first contact with The Bible, and with Andre's information I was able to reveal multiple prophecies within it. I realised how special this book is and how accurately it has predicted the future up to now. That is normally disregarded by mainstream "Scientists", but fact is still fact.

In this world, the messengers of TRUTH have been persecuted and killed for a very long time and for a very selfish reason. Only a few hundred years ago, Giordano Bruno, an Italian philosopher, priest and cosmologist, amongst others, was burnt alive naked for claiming that The Earth was not the centre of Our Solar system and that The Sun did not revolve around The Earth, contrary to The Teachings of The Roman Catholic Church. Today Bruno's statement is a well-known fact/truth. In his time, this fact was judged as a heresy by The Church and this messenger of truth was killed for bringing vital information to humanity. Remember that what is proclaimed as truth by the world government today may be a lie tomorrow; a heavy responsibility lays on YOUR shoulders. If the rules of the world government do not honour God's rules, theirs are the rules of Satan. Satan merely means Opposer in the Hebrew language, mother tongue of The Christ.

In 18th century Swedish scientist Carl von Linnaeus, father of modern taxonomy, started officially classifying living organisms into categories; he put Whites in a different subgroup from Blacks. He believed in God's Creation. He thought that cacao was so important that he named the genus and species of this tree himself. He named this tree, Theobroma Cacao, which literally means "cacao, the food of the gods".

Just like cacao, the truth is bitter. As commercial chocolate contains very little real cacao, so commercial fact and history contains very little truth, if any. Majority of the world is eating the sweet lies and chocolate from the palms of Satan's hands; they refuse to eat the real thing from the palms of God, just like The Bible said it would be.

This time, bitter is better!
